CITY OF LOS ANGELES

We CAN save our planet!

Help is here to guide us,
but all are needed, every one...

It is up to We the People to urge governments to change course and reverse the appalling destruction and degradation of Planet Earth before it is too late.

Humanity is sharing one planet. Although we didn't all spoil our planetary home, the situation it will take us all to stop it. Together, we must be loud and strong — and force governments to end their reckless dependence on fossil fuels and commit to environmental sustainability.

History, especially in times of crisis, has shown us that we have emerged to show humanity the new path. As the Marxist Benjamin Creme, a group of spiritual Masters of Wisdom, is saying in the modern world, they are here to inspire us to create a civilization of balance.
